

HALF IN

A Coming-Of-Age Memoir of Forbidden Love

Felice Cohen

"Half In is ever tempting..."

--Rita Mae Brown, author of Rubyfruit Jungle

In Half In, Felice Cohen's first love was a forbidden one.

At twenty-three, Felice Cohen was, like other recent college grads, hesitant about entering the real world, with the added stress of coming out in the early nineties. Focused on how to land a full-time position as a writer, falling in love was the last thing on her mind.

But fall in love she did. With her boss, a woman thirty-four years older.

In this candid coming-of-age memoir—as compelling as a novel—Felice chronicles the happiness and heartbreak of an age-gap love affair while struggling to figure out the direction of her future. Ultimately, this is a story about navigating life's unpredictable path while following one's heart, and finding acceptance.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

FELICE COHEN, known nationally and internationally as the woman who lived in one of the world's smallest apartments, is an author, speaker and Holocaust educator. Her second book 90 Lessons for Living Large in 90 Square Feet (...or More), the recipient of numerous Self Help book awards, was inspired by the YouTube video of her 90-square-foot NYC studio that went viral with over 25 million views, gaining media attention across the globe. As the grandchild of two Holocaust survivors, Felice is also the author of What Papa Told Me, a memoir about her grandfather's life before, during and after the war. The book has been endorsed by Elie Wiesel and translated into Polish.
